Organisation

The Summer School is one of the activities carried out by the Institute for European Studies (ULB) in the field of European Criminal Law. The coordination of the European Criminal Law Academic Network (ECLAN) is another central activity of the Institute in this sector.

ECLAN was launched in December 2004 thanks to a co-financing of the European Commission and the Ministry of Justice of Luxembourg. The network aims to facilitate and strengthen academic research and education in the field of EU Criminal Law. ECLAN is constantly developing. It is currently composed of more than 120 academics (contact points and members) coming from the 28 EU Member States and 4 third Countries (Bosnia-Herzegovina, Iceland, Norway and Switzerland). For more information about the network, please visit: www.eclan.eu

Scientific coordination

Summer School programme coordinator: Prof. Anne Weyembergh

Summer School Steering Committee: Profs. Pedro Caeiro, Sabine Gless, Robert Kert, Katalin Ligeti, Valsamis Mitsilegas and Anne Weyembergh.
