

University of
Zagreb

International Spring Course
CRIME PREVENTION THROUGH CRIMINAL LAW
& SECURITY STUDIES

9th edition titled

Criminal Law and Human Rights

&

3rd ADRIATIC MOOT COURT COMPETITION

Dubrovnik, Croatia, 2-8 April 2017

~ GENERAL INFORMATION ~

1. Arrival of participants is expected on Sunday, 2 April 2017 and the Course will commence on Monday, 3 April 2017. The lectures, as well as the moot court competition, will take place at the Inter-University Center (IUC) in Dubrovnik, Croatia. The Course will conclude on Saturday, 8 April 2017.
2. Participants should be in their higher years of graduate studies in law, in related studies (international relations, political science, philosophy, sociology, journalism etc.) or already holding a bachelor or a higher degree in law or related studies.
3. The working language will be English; therefore proficiency in English is required.
4. The number of participants will be limited to 40. Educational and academic excellence, as well as regional, geographic and gender balance will be taken into consideration during the admission process.
5. Participants are required to pay a 65€ fee via bank transfer upon admission. The Faculty of Law, University of Zagreb will sponsor the costs of the selection process, academic materials, occasional snacks & drinks, 4 university credits (ECTS), certificates and rewards for winners in the moot court. The 65€ fee includes course venue costs, a welcome reception, a guided Dubrovnik sightseeing, high-speed Wi-Fi connection, use of IUC computers and printers as well as other IUC facilities.
6. The University of Zagreb will provide a limited number of scholarships to cover accommodation expenses as well as discounted prices for hotel accommodation.
7. Active participation in classroom discussions as well as in the moot court is expected and attendance is required at all sessions. Failure to attend sessions will disqualify participants from receiving a certificate of completion for the Course.
8. Each student will be assigned by lot to a moot court team on the first day of the Course. Moot court training will be provided and participants will hold preparatory sessions of the moot court teams to practice their oral presentations before preliminary rounds. In the preliminary rounds, participants will be evaluated as individuals. 8 people will be selected as members of the two teams taking part in the final round. The judging criteria for each presentation will be: knowledge of the law; knowledge of the facts; analysis; presentation; and time management.
9. A limited number of postgraduate students may apply to present their research projects instead of participation in the moot court, but this will be subject to a selection process. PhD students and other postgraduate researchers will have the opportunity to present the topics of their research, gain experience in disseminating their work, obtain feedback from experienced academics, yield questions from their counterparts, and socialize with other attendees. Submissions from postgraduate participants demonstrating innovative thought, originality and of high quality are sought in the call for papers. Selected postgraduate participants interested in presenting their project will be required to submit the title of their presentation and abstract (max. 300 words) no later than 1 March 2017.
10. Participants who have successfully completed the course will be entitled to 4 university credits (ECTS).
11. The deadline to apply for the Course is 1st February 2017. The application form should be filled out online and the link is provided on the Course website: <http://www.pravo.unizg.hr/KP/crimeprevention>. Acceptance letters will be sent out shortly after the deadline for application, although early admissions are also possible. Candidates not accepted for the course will be informed accordingly.
12. If you have any questions, please contact the course coordinator Assistant Professor Dr. Aleksandar Marsavelski (aleksandar.marsavelski@pravo.hr)

~ PROGRAMME OF THE COURSE ~

Sunday, April 2

Arrival of participants

Monday, April 3

10.00 - 10.30 Welcome and Introduction: Davor Derenčinović (University of Zagreb, Croatia)

10.30 - 11.00 Hans-Jörg Albrecht (Max Planck Institute for Foreign and International Criminal Law, Germany): TBA

11:00 – 11:15 Discussion

11.15 - 11.45 Coffee break

11.45 - 12.15 Tina Hunter (University of Aberdeen, UK): Criminality and Human rights Abuses in the Exploitation of Petroleum Resources: The Example of Nigeria

12.15 - 12.45 Discussion

12.45 - 13.30 IUC Reception

13.30 - 14.30 Steven Becker (DePaul University, United States of America): Introduction to the Moot Court Case

14.30 - 16.30 Lunch break

16.30 - Dubrovnik Sightseeing

Tuesday, April 4

10.00 - 10.30 Charles Tucker (International Human Rights Institute, DePaul University, United States of America): TBA

10,30 - 11,00 Guo Jing (Shanghai Academy of Social Sciences, China): Reflections on the Latest Amendment to Chinese Criminal Law: From Crime Punishment to Risk Prevention

11:00 – 11:15 Discussion

11.15 - 11.45 Coffee break

11. 45 - 12.15 Jacey Cio | Cao Jing (China University of Political Science and Law, Beijing): TBA

12.15 - 12.30 Discussion

12.30 - 14.30 Lunch break

14.30 - 15.30 Student Presentations (Part I)

15.30 – 16:45 Coffee break

15.45 - 16.45 Student Presentations (Part II)

16:45 – 17:00 Discussion & Comments

Wednesday, April 5

10.00 - 10.30 Gleb Bogush (Lomonosov University, Russia): Article 7 of the ECHR: Poor, Relative or Hidden Jewellery?

10,30 - 11,00 Johanna Rinceanu (Max Planck Institute for Foreign and International Criminal Law, Germany): TBA

11:00 – 11:15 Discussion

11.15 - 11.45 Coffee break

11. 45 - 12.15 Chingiz Batyrbekov (American University in Central Asia, Kyrgyzstan): Means of Dealing with Syrian Returnees: Proposed Changes to Criminal Law in Kyrgyzstan

12.15 - 12.30 Discussion

12.30 - 14.00 Lunch break

14.00 - 18.00 Moot Court Team Preparations

Thursday, April 6

10.00 - 10.30 Michael Kilchling (Max Planck Institute for Foreign and International Criminal Law, Germany): European Anti-Terrorism Legislation and Human Rights

10.30 - 11.00 Lucija Sokanović (University of Split, Croatia): Devaluation of Human Rights in War - Satisfaction in Courts?

11:00 – 11:15 Discussion

11.15 - 11.45 Coffee break

11. 45 - 12.15 Wei Changdong (Shanghai Academy of Social Sciences, China): TBA

12.15 - 12.30 Discussion

12.30 - 14.00 Lunch break

14.00 - 15.45 Moot Court Competition

15.45 - 16.00 Coffe Break

16.00 - 17.45 Moot Court Competition

Friday, April 7

10.00 - 10.30 Nikola Tupanceski (University Ss. Cyril and Methodius, Macedonia): TBA

10.30 - 11.00 Pero Maldini (University of Dubrovnik, Croatia): Democratization and Human Rights: Political, Legal and Sociocultural Controversies of Concept Implementation

11:00 – 11:15 Discussion

11.15 - 11.45 Coffee break

11. 45 - 12.15 Istvan Gal (University of Pecs, Hungary): TBA

12.15 - 12.30 Discussion

12.30 - 14.00 Lunch break

14.00 - 16.00 Moot Court Competition - Final

16.00 - 17.00 Aleksandar Marsavelski (University of Zagreb, Croatia): Course Conclusions

17:00 - 17:30 Distribution of Certificates

Saturday, April 8

Departure of participants

Annual Group Photo with participants of the International Spring Course
Crime Prevention through Criminal Law & Security Studies
(Inter-University Centre, Dubrovnik, Croatia)

The Inter-University Centre Dubrovnik (IUC) is an independent international institution for advanced studies. It is a meeting ground for learning and scholarship which is co-sponsored by some two hundred member universities and institutions of higher learning around the world.

Founded in 1971 at the height of the Cold War, the IUC became one of the most important venues for the exchange of ideas by scholars from both the East and West. Over the years, more than 50,000 scholars and students have participated in the Centre's courses and conferences.

Based in Dubrovnik, Croatia, formerly a self-governing Mediterranean city-state, at the crossroads of various cultural and political influences, the IUC is currently building on its past achievements and traditions under a new set of challenging circumstances. It is maintaining high standards of independent scholarship, but at the same time, it is looking for opportunities in bridge-building in a region and the world that must continue to rededicate itself to pluralism.

The IUC is now especially keen on promoting specialized postgraduate education that will take into account both the regional issues and the overarching challenges of globalism. International agenda in various disciplines, notably in the social sciences and in the humanities, will certainly be informed by the issues of postcommunism and European integration, especially with an eye on the stabilization of Southeastern Europe.

<http://www.iuc.hr>

University of
Zagreb

One of the main aims of the Faculty of Law of the University of Zagreb is to foster excellence through international cooperation. We seek to create a stimulating environment for successful learning and research, as well as for personal development. Through agreements with more than 130 institutions of higher education throughout Europe and other continents, we offer a warm welcome to all our student guests from abroad.

The Faculty of Law, University of Zagreb, was established in 1776 and while it remains proud of its fine tradition, it has developed into a modern institution engaged in cutting-edge research and education. It is equipped with a modern library, which offers not only over 400,000 volumes, but also access to numerous international databases, and houses a European Documentation Centre. The Faculty of Law has strong international relations and cooperates with many institutions and individuals worldwide, especially those in the EU and the region. It presents a welcoming environment for international students.

The Faculty of Law, University of Zagreb, provides accreditation for the International Spring Course in Dubrovnik with 4 ECTS.

www.pravo.unizg.hr/en

Our partner institutions:

DEPAUL
UNIVERSITY

